

THE CALL TO GLOBAL UNITY

PULSE OF SPIRIT

MARCH 26, 2020

As we hold a vigil for humankind with spiritually awake people the world around, we are issuing a daily Pulse of Spirit for the next several days. We are quickening the pulse.

Each one will radiate our collective love and light for a world experiencing transmutation at the most profound level. Thank you for being part of this radiance.

We are surely experiencing the transmission that activates transmutation. We are each being called inward, into the secret place, for the healing of the planet and the healing of the nations. Can you feel the gravity of that call inward?

This is a whole-capacity experience on every level of mind and heart and soul and body. Just when I think that call cannot draw forth any more silence, greater silence comes, and with it greater availability of presence for the moment and all the Beings in it. Just when I think there cannot be any more stillness that the heart can rest on in peace, greater peace and greater stillness become reality.

On this day of unity, it's difficult not to reflect: What is that simple thing that unites us? In this moment, that is our longing—to be united. We are all longing for pure love to enfold the world and to heal the planet. In such a simple recognition, we are drawn to the place where we know our unity. As soon as our minds get busy, then stories come in, and those stories have infinite varieties. None of those stories lead to unity. But in this inward call—this calling for the healing of the planet and of our humanity—we are called into the secret place. From there we shine like the sun, aligned in the vibration of love. From there we know, express and embody the reality of unity.

To me, love is a verb spelled out by the acronym of the letters in the word L-O-V-E.

The L of love says to let go. The first step of loving is letting go—letting go of the past, letting go of anything that clouds this moment. Letting go establishes our availability in this moment.

The O of love says to open—open your heart, open your mind, open your spirit.

When we are open in that way, the V of love says to vibrate with Divine presence. Who is in the center of this world in which we live, this garden? The one who is listening, the one who is present. That one is vibrating with Divine presence.

The E of love is to energize—energize the soul of humanity that we are touching right now in this moment, in our collective fields, no matter where we find ourselves.

LOVE: Let go, open the heart, the mind and the spirit, vibrate Divine presence and energize the soul of humanity.

In the words of Fr. Richard Hendrick:

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.

That moment of choice, that moment of conscious living, comes through our loving.

In the words of poet Kitty O'Meara:

And the people stayed home. And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still. And listened more deeply. Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows. And the people began to think differently.

And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal the earth fully, as they had been healed.

May the inward call take us to presence and power, integrating as love in every moment with every Being that we find ourselves with to heal this planet, to heal the nations, to heal our humanity, and to welcome a new world.
