2021

happy new year

We are incredibly grateful to have this extended community of loving people that share a common goal of doing and being good in the world. Thank you for choosing to be connected with us!

We hope this season strengthens your soul, brings you closer to those you love, connects you more fully with your passion and purpose, and provides you space for reflection and renewal.

Some of our community members would like to share their blessings as well...

May this year unfold in front of you as though you are walking through a lucid dream, with loving beings, creative intentions and magical synchronicities to accompany you on your way. May you lift others up with your generosity and inspire those around you with your fearlessness. May you sleep peacefully and wake every morning with joyful gratitude.

Energy Medicine Formulas for Personal Regeneration

Beginning this Saturday at 10 a.m., this online workshop will help you move past any energetic or emotional blocks so you can connect to what lights you up and illuminates the path before you. In four weeks, you will understand simple breakthrough formulas embedded in the Attunement Cards and learn how to use them on your life journey. More than that, you will have a firsthand experience of the power of these formulas.

Attunement With Source is an online workshop happening in four weekly sessions: January 9, 16, 23, and 30. Each session will begin at 10 a.m. Denver, Colorado (Mountain) Time and will be 90 minutes long.

To Be or to Perform?

From the moment of birth, we're taught to perform. Conditioning is laid upon conditioning and it's all intended to create an individual who can intellectually and socially perform according to all the accepted performance criteria of human culture. In the process, a person develops an identity based on these performance norms and is essentially separated from anything approximating true identity.

On the Farm

Lambing season has begun! On December 17, we had our first set of triplets, Larry, Moe and Curly. Unfortunately, Curly was not accepted by his mama, but he is getting plenty of care from his humans.

That's Curly on the left, the triplet who was rejected by his mama. Clarence, on the right, was our first lamb of the season. Well, they've become best friends, always hanging out together.

This is a perfect song for the season. Enjoy "Silent Night" with beautiful views of our Milky Way, played by Roshana Ariel.

A gift for you!

We would love for you to experience a private getaway at Sunrise Ranch to get out of the house and enjoy the beautiful winter scenery in the heart of our gorgeous valley. As our gift to you, we are offering one night free when you reserve two nights.

Up-level your Soul Care

We've been writing an interfaith blog designed to nourish, support and inspire you. We believe that the original inspiration of all faiths comes from a common source, named and revered in a myriad of ways. With that understanding, the innumerable symbols, beliefs, and practices of faith cease to divide. They become open windows to a common reality that inspires and unifies us. We find deeper insight and nourishment in our own faith and from the expression of faith from others.

We hope these weekly quotations and meditations speak to your heart and soul.

Celebration of Life Events

We embrace all cycles of life. Consider Sunrise Ranch as a place for the Celebration of Life ceremony for your loved one.

May the newness you feel in the sacred dark of the womb of your earthly experience galvanize the glimmer of light from your soul's seed. May this seed sprout into a rooted tree of knowledge which is yours and yours alone in the light of your love. And when you are ready to share it with us, your family, a new birth of light among us will be evident and bursting with possibility by this time next year.

— S. Hunter

To all of good intent, a blessed New Year and rich 2021. The possibilities are endless.
